Florence Nightingale

|
Queen Victoria	The queen for most of Florence's long life. She gave Florence lots of medals
Mary Seacole	A black lady who went to the Crimea to help the soldiers, looking after them well, even on the battlefield

Key Knowledge

- Florence Nightingale was a nurse during the Crimean War
- Florence was known as the 'Lady with the lamp'
- Florence was born in Italy
- Florence set up the first training school for nurses in London
- Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole lived in a time beyond our living memory
- Mary Seacole helped the lives of soldiers by opening a hospital to treat them
- Mary was awarded a special medal for her bravery
- Mary was born in Jamaica
- International Nurses Day is celebrated on the 12th of May (Florence's birth date)
- Britain has a monarchy and we now have a King that is head of the Monarchy

Enquiry Question:
Why do we remember Florence and Mary?

Timeline

1820	1851	1853	1854	1855	1859	1883	1910
Florence was born in Florence, Italy	Florence became a nurse	The Crimean War started.	Florence travelled to the war in Russia to make sure the hospitals were clean.	Florence came back to England as Miss Smith and as a heroine.	Florence opened a training school for nurses in London.	Queen Victoria awarded Florence the Royal Red Cross.	Florence died at the age of 90